

Promotion Guidelines

WISCONSIN
HUMANITIES

When promoting your program, we ask that you please mention Wisconsin Humanities and use our logo in the following ways.

For additional instructions, please refer to your initial letter of notice from Wisconsin Humanities.

Project Promotion Material Language

The following notices must be included in your project materials*:

1. "Funded in part by a grant from Wisconsin Humanities, with funds from the National Endowment for the Humanities."
2. "Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this project do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities."
3. We would also appreciate, wherever possible, the inclusion of an additional explanatory sentence in your promotional materials:

"Wisconsin Humanities strengthens our democracy through educational and cultural programs that build connections and understanding among people of all backgrounds and beliefs throughout the state."

* Please review the email alerting you to the grant award for language specific to your grant. Some Wisconsin Humanities grant awards include funds from the State of Wisconsin or other donor funds and we ask that you include those acknowledgments as well.

Grant Announcement Social Media Language

You received a grant! Please share the great news on your social media channels. Below are general guidelines on how to discuss your program on social media.

1. Example of text for a social media post:

“We are excited to announce we have received a Mini/Major Grant from @Wisconsin Humanities. Our project _____ supports @Wisconsin Humanities’ mission to strengthen our democracy through educational and cultural programs that build connections and understanding among people of all backgrounds and beliefs throughout the state. #WHGrantee “

2. Please tag Wisconsin Humanities on Facebook and Twitter. When posting on other platforms, please include our website.

3. Tagging all of your program partners in your social media post reaches more people.

4. Please use the hashtag #WHGrantee.

5. For Facebook events, please make Wisconsin Humanities a co-host so that we can help promote the event

6. Some Wisconsin Humanities grant awards include funds from the State of Wisconsin or other donor funds and we ask that you include those acknowledgments as well.

7. Please continue to tag and mention Wisconsin Humanities as you continue to promote your project.

8. If using the Wisconsin Humanities logo in your posts, please consult the logo guidelines in this document.

Using our Logo

Please use our logo on all promotional materials for your event. This is the primary form of our logo and should be used on light backgrounds. Choose between the horizontal or vertical orientation depending on the space available in each piece.
